* Faculty of International Liberal Arts Online Interview: October 24, 2025 (Fri) – October 31, 2025 (Fri)

Notice of results: December 5, 2025 (Fri)

4. SELECTION PROCESS

Selection is made through document screening.

* Faculty of International Liberal Arts will conduct online interviews, while other faculties will only conduct document screening.

5. ELIGIBILITY

An applicant who satisfies one of the five following conditions is eligible to apply:

- (1) An applicant who has completed or is scheduled to complete a 12-year school education in a foreign country (*1).
- (2) If the 12-year school education includes the enrollment period in schools based on the Japanese education system, one of the following must apply.
 - For those who have completed or are scheduled to complete high school in a foreign country, the enrollment period in Japanese elementary, junior high, and high schools (*2) must be six years or less.
 - For those who have completed or are scheduled to complete the relevant high school courses stipulated in the School Education Act of Japan, the enrollment period in Japanese elementary, junior high, and high schools (*2) must be three years or less.
- (3) An applicant who satisfies the requirements such as being deemed to have completed a designated course of not less than 11 years and has completed a course of a school corresponding to an upper secondary school (List of Courses of Foreign Schools Corresponding to Upper Secondary Schools Designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology) in a foreign country.
<https://www.mext.go.jp/en/policy/education/highered/title02/detail02/sdetail02/1395423.html>
- (4) An applicant who has obtained Swiss International Baccalaureate, German Abitur, French Baccalaureate, or other equivalent qualifications.
- (5) An applicant who has completed 12 years of education at educational institutions accredited by international accrediting bodies, namely the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), the Council of International Schools (CIS), the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), and the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC).

In addition, in cases where there is no accreditation by accrediting bodies mentioned in (5) as above, eligibility for admission may be determined through an individual eligibility assessment.

*1 School education in a foreign country includes schools in the “List of Schools for Non-Japanese Designated as Equivalent to Foreign Upper Secondary Schools in Japan”
<https://www.mext.go.jp/en/policy/education/highered/title02/detail02/sdetail02/1395424.html>

*2 Japanese elementary, junior high, and high schools indicate elementary, junior high, and high schools based on School Education Act of Japan and overseas Japanese schools approved by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

6. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to section 5. “Eligibility” above, an applicant must also satisfy the following requirements for their desired faculty or department.

- (1) An applicant must be able to take the Standardized Examination administered in each country (P. 12), SAT, ACT, or Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students (EJU), and submit the score report of any of these examinations. Applicants to the Faculty of Science and Engineering must take “Mathematics” in the standardized examination used for college examination. Applicants who plan to submit the EJU score report must take the specific subjects; for the applicants to the Faculty of Science and Engineering must take “Mathematics II” and for others must take “Japan and the World” and “Mathematics I.”

In principle, applicants must take the Standardized Examination administered in each country. If an applicant is unable to take the standardized examination in your home country or cannot submit any of the above documents, please submit a written explanation of the reason. Failure to do so without a valid reason will put the applicant at a disadvantage in the screening process.

- (2) An applicant to the Faculty of International Liberal Arts must submit their English proficiency score of 70 or above in TOEFL-iBT or 6.0 or above in IELTS Academic.

However, those who have taken six years of junior high and high school in English in either Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, United Kingdom or United States, can substitute the English proficiency score mentioned above for their academic transcript referred to these six years.

- (3) An applicant to the Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, Law, Letters, Education, and Science and Engineering must be able to provide proof of Japanese language proficiency: JLPT Certificate of Result and Scores, showing a passing grade of N2 level, or EJU’s score report of 200 or above in “Japanese as a foreign language,” excluding the writing section, or JPT (Japanese Proficiency Test) score report of 600 or above (taken within two years prior to application).

However, if an applicant to the Faculty of Science and Engineering, Department of Green Technology yet to acquire JLPT N2 level, they must be able to provide proof of JLPT Certificate of Result and Scores, showing a passing grade of N5 level or above, alongside with TOEFL-iBT score report of 61 or above, or IELTS Academic score report of 5.5 or above.

(3) Important Notes Regarding Application Document Submission

1. Required documents differ by department. Carefully read the “List of Required Documents” in the table before applying. If there is an error in the application documents or if not all application documents are submitted, the application will not be accepted.

2. Documents are accepted only in Japanese or English. Attach a translation if the documents are in any other languages than in Japanese or English. Documents for the Faculty of International Liberal Arts application must be prepared in English.

3. Send the original documents in principle. Only when it's difficult, the certified copy will be accepted. Submitted documents (high school graduation certificate, transcript, etc.) will not be returned. However, regarding the original copies of certificates that cannot be reissued (e.g. graduation diploma), if you want to have such documents returned, please enclose a letter specifying which document(s) are to be returned together with an additional copy and state the address that you would like the documents sent to (along with the telephone contact info) (envelope and stamps not required). In principle, the documents will be returned by late January. If an accepted applicant requests the documents be returned, the documents will be returned after the accepted applicant arrives in Japan.

4. If there is a falsification, false statement, plagiarism, etc., in the documents, materials, or information submitted to Soka University at the time of application, such shall be deemed to be a wrongful act, and the results of all entrance examinations at Soka University for the relevant year will be invalid. In that case, the submitted documents, materials, and admission fees will not be returned.

5. After uploading the set of application forms to the WEB application page, send them by simple registered mail or using an international courier service to Soka University International Affairs Office Admissions Section within the application period. In case you miss one of these, your application will not be considered as completed. Also, you may confirm the delivery of the documents on “My Page” of the WEB application system.

6. No application documents delivered after the application deadline will be accepted for any reason. Even in the event of non-delivery or delayed delivery caused by trouble at the postal service or courier service, the University shall take no responsibility.

7. Soka University will not accept any application documents submitted in person.

8. Soka University International Affairs Office Admissions Section may contact you through the WEB application page, in the “Contact Us” tab. Messages may also be sent from Soka University’s email address no-reply@soka.campus-p.jp so please adjust your settings and register it as a receiver domain.

10. FINANCIAL SUPPORT SYSTEM

(1) Soka University Academic Fee Exemption Scholarship for International Students

By the time of the application to the International Students Admission, applicants can also apply for the academic fee exemption scholarship.

Required documents :

- Application form for Academic Fee Exemption Scholarship
- Proof of household income referred to January to December 2024 (or the most recent one-year period available) of all financial supporters

※In principle, household income refers to those of the father and mother.

※In case there was a job change in 2024, please submit also the proof of income referred to the previous job.

※‘Income’ refers to the amount that is received before tax deductions are taken out.

※In case there is no income, please submit a “Certificate of no income”.

※If the applicant is unable to provide documents to prove the household income, they will not be eligible to apply for ‘Soka University Academic Fee Exemption Scholarship for International Students.’

The results of the academic fee exemption scholarship will be notified simultaneously with the admission announcement.

The conditions and ratio of academic fee exemption are as follows.

Household annual income criteria	Exemption ratio
Below 8,000,000 JPY	50% exemption
8,000,000 JPY or more	No exemption

- After enrollment, it requires to apply for every year. If the recipient’s cumulative GPA is below 2.0 (the maximum GPA is 4.0) or if the number of credits earned per semester is below 15 credits, the academic fee exemption will not be granted for the subsequent year.

- If an applicant has siblings enrolled in an undergraduate program at the same time, 1,800,000 JPY will be deducted from the household annual income for each sibling. If an applicant has siblings enrolled in the Bekka Preparatory Japanese Language Program at the same time, 1,470,000 JPY will be deducted for each sibling.

- Appendix (P. 11) shows the ‘Fees for Year 1’ required for students granted academic fee exemption.

(2) Soka University Grant for Undergraduate International Students from Designated Countries

By the time of the application to the International Students Admission, applicants can also apply for the “Soka University Grant for Undergraduate International Students from Designated Countries.” As for the application procedure, read the guidelines for “Soka University Grant for Undergraduate International Students from Designated Countries” on the application guidelines page and send the required documents with application documents to Soka University. For the procedures after entering the university, it is explained in a scholarship guidance for international students.

Designated countries and regions are as below.

Korea, Brazil, Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, Vietnam, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Mongol, Uzbekistan, Kirghiz, Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, African countries set by the foreign ministry

Payment period	Payment amount
At the university entry	200,000 JPY (one time per person)
After enrollment	Yearly 300,000 JPY (Max 4times per person)

(3) Soka University Honors Student Scholarship (Evaluation based on grades after enrollment)

No procedure is required for application. Students who are granted the scholarship will be notified individually.

- Scholarship amount: In principle, 150,000 JPY will be paid for the semester
- Number of recipients: Approximately 100 students each semester
- Scholarship period: 1 semester
- Selection criteria: Among those who have earned 16 or more credits in the previous semester, the student with the highest semester GPA in each faculty and department will be selected. In the case of two students with the same GPA, the student with the most credits will be selected in principle.
- Eligibility: Grades from the 1st to 6th semesters of enrollment will be evaluated. Selection will be conducted in the following semester, so all undergraduate students from the 2nd to 7th semesters of enrollment will be eligible.

*If any changes are made to other scholarship programs etc., a change may be made to these scholarship programs.

*For other scholarships offered by the Japanese government, please refer to the Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) website, "Scholarships for Study in Japan."
