Japan has about 800 universities. Hosei University offers a wide variety of courses in arts, sciences, and the interdisciplinary field as illustrated below:

Why did you decide to study in Japan?
I decided to study in Japan after finishing high school. Before I came to Japan, I had never been to a foreign country. I was interested in Japanese culture and decided to study in Japan. I was granted a scholarship to come to Japan in 2011.

Why did you choose Hosei University?
At the time, I was very reluctant to study in Japan. However, I was interested in the Japanese culture and decided to study in Japan. I wanted to become a person like the store manager in the future and took an entrance examination of Hosei University.

What are good things you experienced after entering Hosei University?
I had a hard time selecting a university. At the time, the manager of the store where I was working recommended Hosei University. The manager graduated in Faculty of Economics from Hosei University and told me many things about the university. He is really a nice person who works hard and is respected by everyone including store staff and regular customers. I wanted to become a person like the store manager in the future and took an entrance examination of Hosei University.

Selected for the Top Global University® Project by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology.

Long history of accepting international students

Since its inception, Hosei University has accepted international students. In 1904, the University established the Hosei University China Student “Hoshuu Short Course” ahead of other universities and accepted a number of Chinese students. Many of these students returned to China after graduation and played an important role in the construction of the Chinese state. It is a significant part of the history of Hosei University and the origin of the international exchanges fostered by Hosei University.

Today, the University accepts students from all over Asia, as well as from other countries around the world. This tradition of active international exchanges continues at Hosei University.
